Danny is one of the story's most important characters. Danny's family is from Vietnam. Ba is Danny's grandmother. Danny is Kim's brother. He's the oldest of the family's children and is very brave.

Danny is a brave young man. He's so brave that he stands up to Tiffany's brother's, Frank, and Frank's friend Brian's. One reason that he gets beat up by Frank and Brian is because Danny wants to be Tiffany's boyfriend. Another way that Danny is brave is that he tries to help Sang Le get out of the Cobras gang. Gangs are dangerous and Ba is worried that bad things might happen to Sang Le if he stays in the gang. Involving himself in gang affairs by trying to help Sang Le was dangerous for Danny, but that didn't stop him.

In conclusion, Danny's role in Shadow of the Dragon was a very important one. He had to be brave to help himself and others live, thrive, and survive in America.
